SUMMARY

Cambridge Classicist turned professional word-nerd, currently working as a copywriter with one of the world's leading strategic design agencies.

I graduated from Girton College, Cambridge in 2014, and have since had experience ranging from a small startup company, to large international agency setting. I firmly believe the secret to any good writing is all about understanding your reader, and I'm on a vendetta against incomprehensible jargon.

EXPERIENCE

08/15-Now

Global Copywriter

Designit

Write, develop and edit content for the global marketing and communications team, from news, cases, thought leadership and social media, through to internal newsletter, leadership communications and announcements.

Copywriting, copyediting and proofreading for clients such as SAS, Knauf, and Novartis.

Branding and copywriting for internal events, including our largest event of the year, Designit's Inspiration Trip. Co-created concept for itrip17, developed into website, communications, merchandise and more.
